Working closely with a passionate international team to materialise further growth, you will play an essential role in our mission to inspire millions to regreen degraded landscapes in Africa.

Location:
Remote but preferably Kenya or Tanzania

Engagement type:
Attendance of quarterly (online) board meetings is required.

Start Date
September 2026

ABOUT JUSTDIGGIT

Justdiggit empowers farmers in Sub-Saharan Africa to restore degraded landscapes using rainwater harvesting, agroforestry, and climate-resilient agriculture. We currently work in Kenya, Tanzania and Senegal. Our ambition for the next decade is to reach millions of farmers and inspire them to regreen degraded land across the African continent. Justdiggit Foundation is registered in the Netherlands, and acts under Dutch law, with offices in Amsterdam, Nairobi and Arusha.

To achieve this, we combine traditional farming techniques with digital (mobile) technology and AI. We amplify our impact by running awareness campaigns across Europe and Africa.

Justdiggit is accelerating its regreening impact while deepening its relationship within the developmental, corporate, and philanthropic sectors.

WHO WE ARE LOOKING FOR

We are looking for an experienced and committed Supervisory Board member who will help guide and support Justdiggit in its next phase of growth and impact. Given the current composition of the Supervisory Board and our strategic focus, we strongly encourage candidates with extensive experience working in Africa and expertise in landscape restoration, regenerative agriculture, or related fields to apply.

The ideal candidate is a team player and brings a strategic mindset, understands the complexities of scaling impact-driven organisations, and is motivated to contribute to our mission of restoring ecosystems and strengthening livelihoods.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

As a member of the Supervisory Board, you will:

- Provide strategic guidance and oversight to the Executive Board
- Supervise and advise on the organisation's long-term strategy, performance, and risk management
- Ensure that Justdiggit operates in line with its mission, values, and legal obligations
- Act as a sparring partner to the leadership team
- Contribute your expertise, network, and experience to support organisational growth and impact
- Safeguard the organisation's integrity, accountability, and effective use of resources

REQUIRED EXPERIENCE AND SKILLS

- Extensive professional experience, preferably at senior or board level
- Strong affinity with or expertise in landscape restoration, climate change, agriculture, or nature-based solutions
- Proven experience working in Africa
- Strategic thinking and governance experience (Supervisory Board / Non-Executive / Trustee level)
- Understanding of nonprofit or impact-driven organisations
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- Ability to challenge constructively and support collaboratively
- Fluency in English
- Given the current composition and location of our offices, we encourage candidates living in Kenya or Tanzania to apply

WHAT WE OFFER

This is a pro bono role offering the opportunity to contribute to a high-impact, fast-growing organisation with a clear mission. You will work alongside a diverse and committed Supervisory Board and leadership team in an international context. Above all, you will play a key role in advancing one of the most scalable and impactful solutions to climate change: restoring degraded land.

Additional benefits:

- Reimbursement of all reasonable expenses incurred in the delivery of your role.
- Opportunity to contribute to a globally relevant mission
- Great colleagues and a diverse, passionate international team and network of experts and partners.

LET'S REGREEN
TOGETHER

APPLY NOW!

Justdiggit values diversity and is committed to building an inclusive Supervisory Board. We warmly encourage candidates from diverse backgrounds to apply. If you are excited about this opportunity, send your CV (max. 2 pages) and a motivation letter to vacancies@justdiggit.org before June 30, 2026.
